General Terms and Conditions

Without a Standing Offer Agreement

The following General Terms and Conditions apply to Products and Services for Customers mailing without a Canada Post “Standing Offer Agreement”. All other mailings must meet the requirements outlined in the applicable Canada Post “Standing Offer Agreement”, which must be in effect between the Customer and Canada Post.

1 Definitions

1.1

“Agreement” has the meaning set out in Section 9.

1.2

“Applicable Published Prices” means, with respect to each Product and Service, the applicable prices, including any applicable fees, charges or surcharges, and less any applicable rebates, set by Canada Post and in effect at the time of mailing, as published and/or made available by Canada Post for general application to its customers, as amended from time to time. Visit canadapost.ca/postalservices for the Applicable Published Prices.

1.3

“Business Day” means a day other than Saturday, Sunday, a statutory holiday and any day normally observed as a holiday by Canada Post.

1.4

“COD Amount” means the amount to be collected on behalf of the shipper, by Canada Post, from the addressee or the addressee’s representative, as specified by the shipper on the Collect on Delivery form/shipping label.

1.5

“Electronic Goods” means electronic devices or their mechanisms, memory and all ancillary or related data storage devices, including but not limited to computers, televisions, tablets, cellular phones, smartwatches, audio equipment, media recording devices, cameras, camcorders, GPS and car audio equipment.

1.6

“Fragile Items” means items of an inherently fragile nature, including but not limited to, vinyl records, glass, framed glass, mirrors, crystal, ceramics, pottery, porcelain, and china.

“Item” means a single item or mail piece prepared and mailed using one of the Products and Services in accordance with this Agreement.

“Major Urban Centre” is a location with a processing facility for sorting, processing, and distributing parcels and mail. 1.9

“Non-Major Urban Centre” is a location without a processing facility. Delivery standards to or from non-major urban centres are longer because non-local parcels and mail need to be transported to or from a processing facility before they can be delivered.

1.10

“Peak Period” means a period of time during which the overall volume of Items deposited by Canada Post customers is likely to be higher than at other times, as determined by Canada Post. Peak Period includes, but is not limited to, the two to four month-long period beginning in October or November every year (as the case may be), with the specific dates as stipulated by Canada Post.

- Damage claims – Claims made by the customer for Items that are damaged by Canada Post. For certainty, Items delivered with missing content due to Canada Post's processing or handling (provided that Canada Post's packaging requirements are complied with by the shipper), are considered to be damaged. Only Items for which Liability Coverage is included or purchased may be eligible for damage claims (other than the reimbursement of shipping charges).
- COD service failure claims – Claims made by the customer for COD Items (i.e., shipments for which the COD option is purchased) that have been delivered, but for which COD funds have not been submitted to the customer by Canada Post. Only Items for which Liability Coverage is included or purchased may be eligible for COD service failure claims (other than the reimbursement of shipping charges).
- Delay claims – Claims made by the customer for delayed delivery of Items. Only Items shipped using a service having an On-Time Delivery Guarantee against published delivery standards may be eligible for delay claims.

No shipment is eligible for more than one (1) claim. Without limiting the foregoing, only one (1) type of claim may be made for a shipment, as between claims for loss, damage, COD service failure, and delay.

Exclusions and conditions apply. Canada Post is not responsible for payment of any loss, damage, COD service failure or delay claim that does not satisfy the requirements of section 12.1 \(Limitation of Liability and Claims\).

12.1.2 Limitation of Liability

Without limiting the foregoing:

- a) Canada Post's only liability arising out of this Agreement is for loss claims, damage claims, COD service failure claims, and delay claims made in accordance with, and eligible for payment under, section 12.1 \(Limitation of Liability and Claims\). A brief description of each type of claim is set out in section 12.1.1 \(Types of Claims\). Canada Post's only liability for any such claims is as explicitly set out in sections 12.1.5 \(Obligation to Repair, Replace, or Pay a Claim for Lost or Damaged Items\), 12.1.6 \(Payment for Loss, Damage and COD Service Failure Claims\), 12.1.10.2 \(Obligation to Provide Replacement Service or Pay a Claim for Delayed Items\), and/or 12.1.10.3 \(Delay Claims Payments\), as applicable; and
- b) Canada Post shall have no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage of a consequential, remote or indirect nature arising from, or in any way connected with, Canada Post's failure to deliver, or delay in delivering time-sensitive mailings on time. Such loss or damage shall expressly include without limitation, loss or damage arising from the mailing of tenders, proposals, court documents, or solicitations of any kind.

This limitation of liability applies to the fullest extent permitted by law.

12.1.3 Availability of Liability Coverage – Loss, Damage and COD Service Failure Claims

Liability Coverage (plus applicable shipping charges) sets out the maximum amount payable by Canada Post for loss claims, damage claims, and COD service failure claims. 12.1.5 Obligation to Repair, Replace, or Pay a Claim for Lost or Damaged Items

For valid loss and damage claims, Canada Post may, in its sole discretion:

- i) replace or repair the shipment or Item lost or damaged, or
- ii) make a claims payment to the customer for the lost or damaged shipment or Item in accordance with section 12.1.6 (a) (Loss and Damage Claims Payments).

12.1.6 Payment for Loss, Damage and COD Service Failure Claims

- a) Loss and Damage Claims Payments. Every claims payment made by Canada Post for loss or damage of an Item for which Liability Coverage was included or purchased is limited to an amount equal to:
 - i) the lesser of:
 - the amount of Liability Coverage included or purchased at the time of shipment;
 - the maximum per claim amount payable under section 12.1.4 (b) (if applicable); or
 - the actual value of the lost or damaged item shipped. The actual value will equal the sender's cost, retail cost, repair cost, depreciated value, or replacement value, as deemed appropriate by Canada Post in its sole discretion,
 - ii) less any compensation received by the claimant from any other source,
 - iii) plus shipping charges for the Item. Shipping charges consist of the base price, fuel surcharge, and base price adjustments (see the Consumer Prices guide (Base price of your item) for details), if any. Shipping charges exclude all fees for options (i.e., Signature, Signature Hard Copy, Proof of Age, additional Liability Coverage, COD, Pickup Services, and any other options set out in the Customer Guide), surcharges (other than the fuel surcharge), and any other charges set out in the Customer Guide.

Every claims payment made by Canada Post for loss or damage of an Item for which Liability Coverage was not included or purchased is limited to an amount equal to the Item's shipping charges (see section 12.1.6 (a)(iii) for a description of shipping charges).

No amount will be paid for the loss or damage of any Item, other than what is explicitly set out above.

If a lost Item is found after a claims payment has been made, then the sender or the addressee may take delivery of the Item, provided that Canada Post is repaid for the claims payment and the Item is picked up within three (3) months from the date Canada Post sends Notice that the Item has been found. Canada Post reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to retain any damaged Item if the claims payment is paid in full.

- b) COD Service Failure Claims Payments. Every COD service failure claims payment made by Canada Post for an Item for which Liability Coverage was included or purchased is limited to an amount equal to:
 - i) the lesser of:
 - the COD amount;
 - the amount of Liability Coverage included or purchased at the time of shipment; or
 - the maximum per claim amount payable under section 12.1.4 (b) (if applicable),

- ii) less any compensation received by the claimant from any other source.

Every COD service failure claims payment made by Canada Post for an Item for which Liability Coverage was not included or purchased is limited to an amount equal to the Item's shipping charges (see section 12.1.6 (a)(iii) for a description of shipping charges).

No amount will be paid for any COD service failure other than what is explicitly set out above.

If COD funds are transmitted to the sender of the COD Item after a claims payment has been made, then Canada Post will invoice the sender for the amount of the claims payment.

- c) General. Without limiting sections 12.1.6 (a) (Loss and Damage Claims Payments) or 12.1.6 (b) (COD Service Failure Claims Payments), no payment will be made for any expense incurred by the sender or the addressee in submitting a claim for a payment. No interest is payable on any claims payment. The value of the Item must be declared on the shipping documentation. No claims payment will be made where otherwise excluded or restricted under section 12.1 (Limitation of Liability and Claims). All claims payments will be made to the sender of the Item.

12.1.7 Time to Submit a Claim for Loss, Damage or COD Service Failure

Any claim for loss or damage must be submitted to Canada Post within ninety (90) calendar days of the shipping date for domestic shipments, or six (6) months of the shipping date for international shipments. Any claim for COD service failure must be submitted to Canada Post within one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days of the shipping date.

Canada Post is not obligated to act on any claim until all applicable shipping charges have been paid. The first claim must be made under any insurance or other source for compensation obtained elsewhere. Canada Post is not liable to the insurer.

12.1.8 Making a Claim for Loss, Damage or COD Service Failure

To initiate a claim for loss, damage, or COD service failure, the customer must contact the Customer Relationship Network at 1-866-607-6301 or initiate a claim online at canadapost.ca/support. The customer must provide reasonable particulars in support of the claim, including the following documentation:

- a) proof of mailing showing Liability Coverage;
- b) proof of postage;
- c) proof of additional Liability Coverage obtained and paid, if applicable;
- d) proof of COD fee paid and COD amount (applicable only to COD service failure claims);
- e) proof of value (i.e., documentation acceptable to Canada Post showing proof of the sender's value of the lost or damaged item, such value being the sender's cost, retail cost, repair cost, depreciated value, or replacement value, as deemed appropriate by Canada Post in its sole discretion);
- f) any non-recoverable provincial sales tax; and
- g) such other documentation as requested by Canada Post.

12.1.9 Right to Verify Claims

Canada Post reserves the right to independently review and verify any and all claims. For damage claims, upon Canada Post's request, the sender or addressee must make the shipment available for inspection by Canada Post.

Canada Post will deny any claim for insufficient proof or for failure by an addressee or sender to co-operate with Canada Post's investigation.

12.1.10 On-Time Delivery Guarantee – Claims for Delay

10.1 On-Time Delivery Guarantee. Only those services with an On-Time Delivery Guarantee against published delivery standards may be eligible for delay claims. Refer to the Customer Guide for which services include the On-Time Delivery Guarantee as a feature. Refer to the Customer Guide or visit canadapost.ca/deliverystandards for details on delivery standards.

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee is based on the service provided, from the time of acceptance of the Item by Canada Post (as evidenced by the Item's first physical item level scan) to the time delivery was first attempted. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, manifest scans do not signify acceptance of any Item for the purpose of the guarantee. Deposits on days other than Business Days are deemed to be accepted on the next Business Day. Items deposited after the last collection time specified on the street letter box or after the cut off time of the postal facility approved by Canada Post are deemed to be deposited on the next Business Day. Visit canadapost.ca/parcelservices/cutofftimes for the list of our facilities and their respective cut-off times. These times are subject to change without notice.

Under the On-Time Delivery Guarantee for Priority™, Xpresspost™ and Expedited Parcel™ shipments within Canada, a claim for delay may only be submitted and will only be paid if, during a Peak Period, the Item is sent by one of these three services and is delivered two or more Business Days after the published delivery standards. The start and end dates for a Peak Period will be posted to canadapost.ca/notice, when available.

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee does not apply to Xpresspost™ and Expedited Parcel™, when shipping items from or to Air Stage offices. The Priority™ service is not available for shipping items from or to Air Stage offices. The On-Time Delivery Guarantee does not apply to Regular Parcel, Package Redirection, and Return to Sender items. The On-Time Delivery Guarantee does not apply if otherwise excluded or restricted under section 12.1.4 \(Exclusions and Restrictions on Claims\) or elsewhere in the Customer Guide.

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee is void if the shipping label is incomplete or illegible, or if the customer is non-compliant with our specifications or requirements, including but not limited to barcode label quality or incomplete or incorrect addressing data. The On-Time Delivery Guarantee is void for shipments that require special handling, such as items that are non-standard in size, dimension or packaging, including but not limited to cylindrical mailing tubes, oversized items, or unpackaged items (see the Parcel Services shipping Postal guide and the Consumer Prices guide [Shipping charges and weight]). Failure to comply with our specifications or requirements may result in the Item being returned to the sender for proper completion or could result in delays, non-delivery, voided On-Time Delivery Guarantee, and/or if applicable, fines and customs seizure at the international destination. If your item bears a tracking number that was used on a previous shipment, the item will be returned to the sender.

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee does not apply in the case of delay caused by an event beyond the reasonable control of Canada Post, including but not limited to, inclement weather, acts of God, epidemics, acts of terrorism, acts of war, flight or ferry delays or cancellations, riots, labour disruptions, customs or other regulatory authorities, unanticipated surges in volume, any act or default of the customer, or any failures or fluctuations in electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment or lines, or other equipment if applicable.

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee for any or all services may be cancelled, suspended, or modified by Canada Post, in its sole discretion, at any time without prior notice.
